GRADUATION EXERCISES HELD AT CENTER SCHOOL

Graduation exercises were held Wednesday night in the school auditorium at Mattapoisett Center School when a total of 49 students were graduated from the ninth grade.

Superintendent of Schools Flavel M. Gifford, of Fairhaven, was the guest speaker. He was introduced by the class president, Miss Beverly J. Turner.

Miss Turner received the scholarship cup with her name engraved on it for highest honors for the past three years. A silver tray was presented to Miss Mary Reed for good citizenship in the school. Presentation was made by Principal Ralph C. Glidden.

Bracelets were presented from the Mattapoisett Woman's Club to the three with the highest honors. They were Miss Turner, Miss Doreen Sylvia and Miss Reed. Mrs. Charles W. Smith, chairman of the Scholarship committee made the awards.

Nancy Borges and Richard Mandell received citizenship medals from Dr. Charles E. Hutchings, Commander of the American Legion Florence Eastman Post.

Mr. Glidden was presented a gift of money towards the purchase of an electric basketball scoreboard from the class. The class president, Miss Turner, presented the gift on behalf of the class.

Diplomas were presented by Mr. N. Floyd Tinkham, chairman of the School Committee.

The school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Erma A. Stonehill, played several selections and

" TOM SAWYERS" PAINT AGAIN - FOR FUN

THURSDAY NIGHT DANCES ON MATTAPOISETT WHARF

A series of Thursday night dances at the Mattapoisett wharf, sponsored by the Police Association, is new this season. It is hoped that many square dancers and others who enjoy ballroom dancing will enjoy these get togethers.

APPOINTED EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF HEART ASSOCIATION

Appointment of Fredric Margolis of New Bedford, as Executive Director of the Southeastern Chapter, Massachusetts Heart Association, was announced following a meeting of the chapter's board of directors.

Margolis succeeds Mrs. Virginia Hatch, also of New Bedford, who resigned to accept a position with Brown University in Providence.

The new director comes to the local Heart chapter from New York City, where he was employed by the Department of Welfare, after graduation from New York University. He also attended the University of Chicago after graduation from Todd High School in Woodstock, Ill.

Hot Bacon and Tomato Sandwiches

8 slices bacon
4 slices process American cheese, 3 x 4 x ⅛-inch thick
¾ cup Pet Evaporated Milk
4 tomatoes
4 slices hot toast

Cook bacon slowly until crisp. Take from skillet, drain on paper towels, and keep hot. Cut cheese into ½-in. squares. Put cheese into heavy 1-qt. saucepan with ¼ cup milk. Stir over low heat until cheese is completely melted. Stir in ½ cup milk a little at a time, and heat until steaming hot, but do not boil. Cut each tomato crosswise into 3 slices and sprinkle with salt. Put toast on 4 serving plates. Arrange 3 tomato slices on each slice of toast. Pour hot cheese sauce over tomatoes. Arrange 2 crisp bacon slices on top of each sandwich. Makes 4 sandwiches.

liary, along with 216 other Massachusetts cities and towns, has sent a delegate to Bridgewater State Teachers' College to participate in this worthwhile program.

"Under the capable guidance of our directors and counselors we have learned about our government by doing:

"The citizens of Girls' State are divided into two parties, the Federal and National. From these parties our State officials are nominated and elected. Besides the State officials, there are many county, city and town officers to be elected.

"I feel very honored and pleased that my city, Goodwill, found me qualified enough to represent them on the Governor's Council. As a member of my city council, I join in approving the city budget and any other article brought up by the mayor or other committees.

"There are many recreationsl activities in which we can participate. A newspaper, edited by the citizens, is put out four times in the week. As the reporter for the Federal Party, I am enjoying writing for the paper. The Glee Club and Barber Shop Quartet have also added in filling my program. Also available to us are the tennis courts, swimming pool and gymnasium.

The highlight of the week is the Inaugural Ball. Before the formal dance, the six high officials plus the Governor's Council are inaugurated into office by the Lt. Governor of Massachusetts, John F. Murphy.

"Our week is climaxed by amateur night in

Later in the evening Norman Dexter and crew brought in two swordfish. One weighed about 275 lbs and the other one a little smaller.
